We are at the final stretch of the Lenten journey. Next Sunday, we will enter Holy Week with the celebration of Palm Sunday. It is a good time for us to re-strengthen our Lenten practices of prayer, fasting or self-sacrifice and charity. If you have not started, it is never too late to do something fruitful for our souls. If you have been practicing them well, keep up with the good work! If you have struggled here and there, did well at some points and forgot at some other points, it is the time of renewal. In fact, that is the whole point of Lenten practices: they help us be in touch with our human condition. We can have the best intentions but our strength comes up short. Such acknowledgement leads us to renew our relationship with God because we know we need a Savior. The more we trust in God's mercy, the more we will experience God's merciful power in our lives.

I encourage you to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation that is available several times during the week. Daily reflection on Scripture, or even better, daily Mass is the daily nourishment for our souls. Come on Friday night to pray Stations of the Cross and socialize with your fellow parishioners at the Lenten dinner afterwards. Bring toiletry donations to help the needy in our area.

Estamos en la recta final del camino cuaresmal. El próximo domingo entraremos en la Semana Santa con la celebración del Domingo de Ramos. Es un buen momento para reforzar nuestras prácticas cuaresmales de oración, ayuno o abnegación y caridad. Si no has empezado, nunca es tarde para hacer algo fructífero por nuestras almas. Si has estado practicando bien, isigue con el buen trabajo! Si has luchado aquí y allá, te ha ido bien en algunos puntos y te has olvidado en otros, es el momento de renovarte. De hecho, ese es el objetivo de las prácticas de Cuaresma: nos ayudan a estar en contacto con nuestra condición humana. Podemos tener las mejores intenciones pero nuestras fuerzas se quedan cortas. Ese reconocimiento nos lleva a renovar nuestra relación con Dios porque sabemos que necesitamos un Salvador. Cuanto más confiemos en la misericordia de Dios, más experimentaremos el poder misericordioso de Dios en nuestras vidas.

Los animo a celebrar el Sacramento de la Reconciliación que está disponible varias veces durante la semana. La reflexión diaria sobre las Escrituras, o mejor aún, la Misa diaria es el alimento diario de nuestras almas. Venga el viernes por la noche a rezar el Vía Crucis y socialice con sus compañeros feligreses en la cena de Cuaresma posterior. Traiga donaciones de artículos de uso personal para ayudar a los necesitados de nuestra zona.
