Ed Long's Discernment to Priesthood

"God pursues me, and will not let me hide nor rest, until I rest in Him." Those words of mine, written to Archbishop Hartmayer, form my calling to priesthood. I am in the process of applying for seminary formation, and I fear, my fellow parishioners, that I will not be able to persevere without your prayers. I fully realize that, at 68 years of age, I am not the ideal candidate for Holy Orders; but I pray, and it is my fervent hope, that the Archdiocese of Atlanta will allow me to make this one last offering of my life, in service to the People of God.
