Attn: Parishioners

Now that we have entered the fall season, and with winter on the way, it is a good time for a reminder that whenever one is not feeling well, it is probably best to stay home, especially if one has cold or flu-like symptoms that may be contagious.

Staying home when ill is an act of charity to your brothers and sisters in our parish family. One is dispensed from the usual Sunday Mass obligation when ill. On another note, may we all be ever vigilant before and after every Mass and other parish events as we enter and exit our parking areas. When driving, Keep a watchful eye out for children and the elderly while entering and exiting the church grounds.
