Adult Enrichment

Adult enrichment with Dick Crotteau will begin on October 15 following 9:00 A.M. Mass and will continue through November 5. We will meet in Shuler Hall. Our discussions will consist of a follow up on "Finishing Well" and the book "This is My Body" by Bishop Barron. Please join us for lively and interesting conversation!

Second Collection Next Weekend

Next week's second collection is a combination of three second collections: World Missions, the Church in Latin America, and the Church in Central and Eastern Europe. United with the Catholics of the world at the table of the Lord, we recommit ourselves to our vocation, through Baptism, to be missionaries. Our offerings will support the work and witness of those who selflessly give up all for the sake of our Lord and his Gospel — the local priests, religious, and lay catechists who daily provide loving service to the poor and suffering. Please be extra generous, as this collection will be divided between three very important needs.

Women's Social

All women of the parish are invited to join us on Thursday, October 26, 6:30 P.M. - 8:30 P.M., at the home of Ann Epps. Please bring an appetizer, dessert, or bottle of wine to share. Kindly RSVP at olmcc.com.

Attn: Parishioners

Now that we have entered the fall season, and with winter on the way, it is a good time for a reminder that whenever one is not feeling well, it is probably best to stay home, especially if one has cold or flu-like symptoms that may be contagious.

Staying home when ill is an act of charity to your brothers and sisters in our parish family. One is dispensed from the usual Sunday Mass obligation when ill. On another note, may we all be ever vigilant before and after every Mass and other parish events as we enter and exit our parking areas. When driving, Keep a watchful eye out for children and the elderly while entering and exiting the church grounds.
